Photos by Michael Santos

Including record number of apprentices!

GCC conferred 399 degrees, certificates, and/or diplomas upon 348 students at the UOG Field House on May, including a record number of 72 graduates from the GCC Apprenticeship program. The 2012 valedictorian is Carl D. Giese, Jr., who graduated with an AS in Computer Networking. The Salutatorian is Lea Pizarro Sanchez, who graduated with her AA in Education. President Okada says this year's graduation cohort, including the record number of apprenticeship completers, signals the important partnership between GCC and the island's business community. "We all collaborate – the students, our faculty, staff and administrators, and island business owners – to produce a qualified workforce," she said. Commencement Speaker John Cruickshank, a senior program analyst with the National Science Foundation (NSF), and the Micronesia and South Pacific outreach coordinator for NSF's Asian-American and Pacific Islander Initiative, told the graduates to make learning a lifelong practice.

From the President...

Another record graduation at GCC – 348 students, including 73 apprentices! I know that all of us are very proud of all of our graduates, and I am proud of the teamwork it took to get these students to this important moment in their lives. Also, congratulations to our newly elected Staff Senate officers: President - Elizabeth Duenas; VP-Johanna Camacho; Secretary/ Treasurer - Ava Garcia; Representatives at Large - Donnie Lizama, Latisha Leon Guerrero, Vivian Guerrero, Ana Mari Atoigue, Tamara Hiura, and Cathy Anderson. Dr. Ray and I know that the Staff Senate will play an important role in GCC's governance process. In addition, this month we hosted conferences, tested EMTs, swore in a new student BOT member, and hosted our 35th Anniversary Gala on Cinco de Mayo at the Hyatt. It was wonderful to see so many faculty and staff at that event, because over the past 35 years, all of you have helped solidify GCC's role as a leader in career and technical workforce development on our island and in the region. As we reach the halfway mark of our 35th year, I can proudly say that GCC is better and stronger than ever as a higher education institution. Have a great summer everyone! Biba GCC!

College & Career Readiness Summit

Fifth graders through high school students learned about careers in the automotive, health sciences, hospitality, marketing, visual communications, and technology industries, and about going to college to pursue those careers, during a three-day College and Career Readiness Summit hosted by GCC May 10 – 12 in conjunction with its grant-funded College Access Challenge Grant Program, the University of Guam, and the Guam Department of Education. The summit focused on different career clusters that students may be interested in, and on how the GCC CTE programs in the public high schools provide a pathway to GCC postsecondary associate degree and certificate programs, and University of Guam baccalaureate degrees in those fields.

Loveridge named EMS advocate

Rosemary Loveridge, chair of GCC's Allied Health Department and EMT program director, was named Emergency Medical Services (EMS) Advocate of the Year by the Emergency Medical Services Commission of the Guam Department of Public Health and Social Services. Noteworthy:

SM215 International Management Business Simulation Game

Students took part in an international exercise in which their performance was measured against over 14,000 student-simulated companies worldwide, including some from UOG. As a management team, they were responsible for maintaining and operating a shoe manufacturing company. They made sales forecasts, managed marketing budgets in North America, Europe, Asia and Latin America, managed plant capacity and made production decisions that impacted revenues, and managed human resources while trying to maintain a corporate image that reflected their social responsibilities. As a class, they scored in the upper 30th percentile in Financial Management, Operations Management and Marketing Management. According to instructor Fred Tupaz, this BSG program is used mainly by students in their final year of college or in many graduate degree business programs. "To have them place as well as they did is definitely an accomplishment," Tupaz said.

MIS staff certifications

Jeff Fabro completed training for certification on Microsoft Windows 7 Operating System Configuration May 21-25 and passed his certification test on June 1st. Jeff can now provide the college with the technical expertise to create and deploy master system images, configure hardware & software, configure networking, backup, and restore system information. Also, Joel Ridgell also passed his CISCO certification in May. Congratulations to Jeff & Joel!

Secondary CTE happenings

JFK's Delfin first student to earn WorkKeys Gold!

Ella May Delfin has plans to be a pharmacist, and judging from the score she received on the WorkKeys test she took in May, she'll be a successful one. Delfin, a senior at John F. Kennedy High School, is the first high school student on Guam to score a gold in the WorkKeys Job Analysis, Assessment and Training test offered through GCC. (Test levels are bronze, silver, gold and platinum.) "Before I took the test I was a bit nervous about how hard the test might be. Then when I actually started the test, it turned out to be pretty easy. The reason I took it is because I wanted to see what level I would score," Delfin said.

GW team's dream home pays!

The GW CTE AutoCAD class taught by instructor John Zilian designed a first-place winning "Green Dream Home" for the Center for Island Sustainability contest in April, and this month, the six-man design team of Eric Delfin, Kent Espinosa, Daryle Lee, Bremity Lakjohn, Jonathan Rios, and Edward Perez collected $3,000 in prize money to split between the team and their instructor. "I'm really proud of how we worked together as a team," said Delfin, senior and team captain.
