

Be Your Own Success Story

Jacob Fathal, from Yap, graduated from GCC in May 2012 with an AS in Computer Science. He is studying Pre-Engineering at the University of Guam. While at GCC, Jacob attended the Islands of Opportunity Alliance – Louis Stokes Alliance for Minority Partnerships conference at the University of Hawaii at Hilo, was named a 2012 New Century Scholar, and was accepted into the University of Texas at Austin's summer Environmental Science Institute Research Experience for Undergraduates.

Jessica Sachuo is a student in GCC's Tourism & Travel Management Program and a valued employee in the Accounting Dept. at the Hotel Nikko Guam.

---

Be Your Own Success Story

Published on GUAM COMMUNITY COLLEGE (<https://guamcc.edu>)

---

Ken Duenas is a graduate apprentice with GTA. GCC has apprenticeship agreements with 100 companies on Guam so that employees like Ken can improve their education and skills, becoming even more valuable to their employers.

The GCC CTE Lodging Management Program team from Okkodo High School WON the 2011 LMP National Championship in Orlando Florida!

From left, Jessica DeVera, Raquel Maminta (captain), Donna Lubas, and Iris Lapid. Standing behind them are Barry Mead, Guam LMP State Director and GCC Adjunct Dean, and Norman Aguilar, former Okkodo LMP instructor and now Tourism & Hospitality Dept. Chair.

---

Jana Mendiola - GCC Adult High School, AS degrees in Education and Early Childhood Education

Roy Santos - Graduate Apprentice