FAQ's

1.

What is the purpose of the Office of Accommodative Services?

The purpose of the Office of Accommodative Services (OAS) is to provide reasonable accommodations to students with disabilities who request services from our office. OAS coordinates, plans, and implements accommodations for the classroom and the campus.

2.

Who can benefit from the Office of Accommodative Services?

Students with disabilities, as defined under the ADA (American Disabilities Act), who are enrolled or will be enrolling in GCC classes, may benefit from the services provided by the Office of Accommodative Services.

3.

How can I establish my eligibility for services with the Office of Accommodative Services?

You must complete a "Request for Accommodations" form, and submit your completed form along with supporting documentation regarding your disability to OAS to be eligible for services.

Continuing students are required to complete an "Update Request for Services" form each semester of enrollment in order to continue receiving accommodative services.

What types of accommodations, auxiliary aids, and support services are available?

Auxiliary aids such as sign language interpreters, note-takers, e-books, etc. may be provided to students who are in need of such accommodations. The staff of the Office of Accommodative Services can also provide assistance with registration and other needs relative to enrollment information and student issues.

How are accommodations determined?

Recommended accommodations are determined based on your disability and on the substantial limitation associated with your disability.

6.

Who is responsible for arranging accommodations and auxiliary aids?

The Office of Accommodative Services is responsible for arranging accommodations and auxiliary aids to students with disabilities who may need this service.

7.

What is the instructor's role in providing accommodations?

An instructor's role is to provide the recommended accommodations, listed on a student's Approved Academic Accommodations Form (AAAF). An instructor will only provide reasonable accommodations to students who present an accommodations form from the Office of Accommodative Services.

8.

How can I contact the Office of Accommodative Services?

You can contact the Office of Accommodative Services at \(671\)735-5641 [2] Ext. 5594/7 or email accommserv.info@guamcc.edu. [1]
