

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

August 1, 2014 4:00 P.M.

Students learn about health careers at AHEC academy

Forty students from high schools across Guam checked out their miniature stethoscopes today during the completion ceremony for the GCC Area Health Education Center's (AHEC) 2014 Summer Academy. Over the past two weeks, the students learned about careers in the medical and health fields while building their math, science and English skills during the free two week course funded by GCC's AHEC grant.

Suggested photo captions:

Christian Ballesta, 15, a sophomore at George Washington High School, checks out the miniature stethoscope he and 39 other students received during the completion ceremony for the GCC Area Health Education Center's (AHEC) 2014 Summer Academy today at GCC. Over the past two weeks, the students learned about careers in the medical and health fields while building their math, science and English skills during the free two week course funded by GCC's AHEC grant.

Brittany Manglona, 14, from Academy of Our Lady of Guam High School, and Christian Ballesta, 15, a sophomore at George Washington High School, check out the miniature stethoscopes they and 38 other students received during the completion ceremony for the GCC Area Health Education Center's (AHEC) 2014 Summer Academy today at GCC. Over the past two weeks, the students learned about careers in the medical and health fields while building their math, science and English skills during the free two week course funded by GCC's AHEC grant.

Brittany Manglona, 14, from Academy of Our Lady of Guam High School, checks out the miniature stethoscope she and 39 other students received during the completion ceremony for the GCC Area Health Education Center's (AHEC) 2014 Summer Academy today at GCC. Over the past two weeks, the students learned about careers in the medical and health fields while building their math, science and English skills during the free two week course funded by GCC's AHEC grant.

GCC is an equal opportunity provider and employer.

Individuals requiring special accommodations, auxiliary aids, or services please contact 735-5597.
For more information, contact Jayne Flores, GCC Asst. Director of Communications & Promotions, at 735-5638
(office), 483-6409 (cell), or via email at jayne.flores@guamcc.edu.