

Student Job Placement Rate:

- 79% of graduates (or 15 of 19) who received an A.A. Culinary Arts degree in 2021 were employed in a job-related field.
- 88% of graduates (or 14 of 16) who received an A.A. Culinary Arts degree in 2022 were employed in a job-related field.
- 84% of graduates (or 11 of 13) who received an A.A. Culinary Arts degree in 2023 were employed in a job-related field.
- 100% of graduates (or 33 of 33) who received an A.A. Culinary Arts degree in 2024 were employed in a job-related field.
- 89% of graduates (or 17 of 19) who received an A.A. Culinary Arts degree in 2025 were employed in a job-related field.

Program Accreditation

The American Culinary Federation has awarded the Seven-Year Exemplary status to the Guam Community College Culinary Arts Program for their Associate of Arts in Culinary Arts and as such, program completers earn the ACF Certified Culinarian designation upon graduation. The program is now ACEF accredited through 2029.

ACEF Required Program Outcomes

	2025			2024			2023			2022			2021
	Graduation Rate	Job Placement Rate	ACF Certification Rate	Graduation Rate	Job Placement Rate	ACF Certification Rate	Graduation Rate	Job Placement Rate	ACF Certification Rate	Graduation Rate	Job Placement Rate	ACF Certification Rate	Graduation Rate	Job Placement Rate	ACF Certification Rate
A.A. in Culinary Arts	86%	89%	100%	96%	97%	100%	81%	84%	100%	80%	88%	100%	80%	79%	100%