Caldecott Award Winning Books

The Caldecott Award is an annual award for the year's most remarkable picture book. The Association of Library Services to Children (ALSC) grants the award to the illustrator of the book since 1938. The LRC has almost every Caldecott award winning book in its collection.

Since 1922, the Newbery Award is annually awarded to the author of the year's most remarkable chapter book for children. Like the Caldecott, it is also awarded by the ALSC, a division of the ALA. The LRC has almost every Newbery award winning book in its collection. Newbery books are in the fiction collection, in alphabetical order. Newbery books about poetry are shelved with poetry.

Since most children's libraries have Caldecott and Newbery award winning books in their collection, lesson plans or project books that center on these awards are popular.

Books about the Awards

The Newbery & Caldecott Awards: A Guide to the Medal and Honor Books provide a history of the awards. It lists the medal and honor books for each year. The Caldecott provides the art medium used for each Caldecott winner. The revisions to the award winning books are detailed.
