Content:

General Description. The paper is generally reflective in nature. Your responses should be based upon the knowledge and experience gained from your participation during the “Engagement + Empowerment: E2 Equals Inclusion and Diversity” symposium.

Reflection 1: Describe your experience about what you learned about participants who attended the symposium with regards to their work, or challenges faced, and their general experiences in serving underserved communities, particularly with the LGBTQ communities.

Reflection 2: Based on the plenary panel session on “Varied Voices” and/or afternoon track session you attended, briefly describe what insights you gained with respect to inclusion and diversity.

Reflection 3: Based on the keynote address, “LGBTQ + STEM in Micronesia” by Mr. John Cruickshank, briefly describe how the information gained could assist you in your current capacity in funding opportunities or briefly describe insights did you gained from this presentation.

Please conclude your paper with a general summary or other general comments of what you learned or what you recommend in order to promote greater diversity and inclusion for the LGBTQ population.
